There are very slight changes in currency; the discount on silver is less than last week.

The government has just bought in San Francisco 1,670,000 ounces of fine silver. Of this amount, 500,000 ounces will be shipped to the Carson Mint. This will keep both Mints running until Sept. 1st.

The mining market has made a number of peculiar and unaccountable changes during the week. All of the leading stocks have fallen. California has dropped $3; Consolidated Virginia, $1 50; Union, $1; Eureka Consolidated, $13, etc. Some of the stocks remain unchanged or have fallen; others have made very slight advances. There have been no shipments of bullion from the bonanza mines this month. It is therefore very probable that both California and Consolidated Virginia will pass their next dividend. Each mine is taking out about 250 tons of ore per day. In January, 1875, California was worth $780 per share, or, at the present number of shares, $156. Consolidated Virginia, January 6, 1875, sold for $715 per share, or $143, present number of shares. Both mines were then worth $161,000,000. Since then they have paid $67,000,000 in dividends, and are now worth $18,000,000.

The reason for the fall in Eureka Consolidated does not appear. This mine is monthly yielding about $400,000 and has to date paid thirty-three dividends, aggregating $2,650,000.

The Nevada Bank has reduced its loans of California to $5, same as Consolidated Virginia.

The Sutro tunnel is being driven straight across the Comstock lode to the west wall.

Wells Fargo has levied a ten-cent assessment.

The changes in trade and the prices of produce vary but little and will be noted best by the reader.
Flour and grain are firm at last week's prices. Eggs are in demand, and Butter finds a better market. Poultry is dull. Of Fruit and Vegetables the market is stocked. Fruit is very low. Good Hay is not plentiful. Wool sales are light and there is little demand. At home trade has been duller than for months. The cause of this is that the farmers are in the midst of their harvest. Beef Cattle and Sheep have fallen 1c. The Meat Shipping Association will not ship fresh meat before Sept. 1st. The local freight trade on the C. P. R. R. is very good, but the hot weather, closeness of money and the shortening of outside or farmers' trade causes the Reno trade to be very dull at present.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

The English Parliament will be prorogued on the 20th of August.

It is stated that Mrs. Tilton intends to lecture, her subject to be "Woman's Fall."

In an affray at Nashville, on the 24th, Samuel Hicks, Jonas Baxter and three others were wounded.

Henry D. McCobb, an old pioneer, is dying in the Santa Clara county hospital of a cancer in the groin.

Sir Hastings Reginald Yelverton, Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom, is dead.

Ex-Attorney-General Williams is of the opinion that Grant will be renominated by the Republicans in 1880 and elected.

Fourteen cases of yellow fever have occurred at New Orleans, seven of them fatal, and two fatal sunstrokes occurred on the 23d.

It is stated that the person who was feted in Geneva as Vera Sassulitch is now in Siberia.

Captain Greene, an American military attaché, has received the order of Saint Vladimir for the passage of the Balkans with General Gourko.

Twenty two tons of fine silver bars, valued at $750,000, were shipped from the New York assay office July 26th for the Philadelphia mint, for coinage into standard silver dollars.

Inquiry at the Executive Mansion and the several Departments fails to produce any confirmation of the reports that Captain Jenks has been appointed to a federal office on the Pacific coast.

The Nevada Bank has sold 1,000,000 ounces of fine silver to the Government, payable in standard dollars, to be delivered immediately in equal quantities at the San Francisco and Carson mints.

Owen Crane, living at 1511 Pine street, San Francisco, attempted to commit suicide on the 24th by cutting his throat with a razor. He had been drinking heavily lately. He will recover.

On the 23d, at San Jose, Cal., an ex-convict made an infamous attempt on the five-year-old daughter of Frederick Shoemaker, but was collared by an officer, fortunately in time to prevent harm to the girl.

There has been nothing received at the war department confirming or denying the report that MacKenzie, with 800 men at his back, has crossed the Rio Grande into Mexico. That he has done so, however, would not create any surprise in the department.

John Heitman, a German saloon keeper, suicided on the 24th in the back room of his saloon, corner of Berry and Fifth streets, San Francisco. He inflicted a cut on his arm with a razor, but not being satisfied with the result hanged himself to a rafter. Cause, whisky.

Lawless Acts in New Mexico.

NEW YORK, July 25.—A Tribune special says: The clause in the Army bill about the use of soldiers as a posse comitatus has delivered over the Western country to terrorism by outlaws. A gang of outlaws and murderers have driven the Postmaster of Lincoln, New Mexico, out of the country and under the protection of the military authorities at Fort Stanton, New Mexico. At least a dozen men have been murdered by this gang. Congress has taken protection from parties needing it under the posse comitatus clause of the Army bill, and in consequence the whole county of Lincoln has virtually been turned over to a gang of cutthroats. The civil authorities are powerless.

Austrian Troops to March.

VIENNA, July 25.—Arrangements for the march of Austrian troops into Bosnia are complete, but the order to march will not be given before the end of the week. Turkish authorities in the provinces have received directions from Constantinople that they are to meet the Austrians in a friendly spirit. Italian demonstrations absorb political interests here, but it is well understood that the whole affair is directed against the Cairo Ministry.

LONDON, July 25.—In the House of Commons to-day Joseph Canon, Radical, will present a petition from a small faction of extreme Turcophiles, demanding the impeachment of Lord Beaconsfield.

Leprosy in New York.

NEW YORK, July 25.—The World says: There are two genuine cases of leprosy at the Charity hospital. One is an ex-member of the Volunteer Fire Department.

FAIR MATTERS.

A meeting of Washoe county citizens has been called for Monday night next at the Academy of Music. The object of the meeting is to devise ways and means for making our State fair more attractive. In Sacramento the business men responded nobly to the call for aid to their local society. The managers are making arrangements for a grand military tournament which will of course attract many visitors. Special premiums are offered in abundance, and the exhibitor in any class will find an earnest competition and an adequate reward. We are glad to see our neighbors prospering so well, but we remember that individual energy has been the starting point. The California fair will offer special inducements only because the zeal of managers and liberality of private citizens make it possible. They will succeed because they have deserved it.

Now what can we do for ourselves? Reno has always been thrifty and energetic—has helped all just enterprises, and now we should help ourselves. Every citizen of this town and county can give his mite towards the public good in this direction. We ought to have a pavilion and numberless special premiums. We ought to show that citizens of this county are alive to the value of an agricultural society for the State. We ought to have a more successful fair than ever during 1878. A little energy will accomplish all these things, and every man should help. You say that times are dull. An exercise of judgment and liberality will brighten them. Be at the meeting Monday night as an earnest, active, wide-awake citizen.

SENATOR JONES ON THE SOUTHERN POLICY.

In relation to the Southern policy of President Hayes, Senator Jones says its adoption was a necessity, and that six months before the inauguration of Mr. Hayes General Grant had reached the conclusion that policy and the will of the majority advised the withdrawal of the federal troops from the Southern States. The Senator says:

The election of President Hayes was all that prevented General Grant from pursuing the same course. I know that six months before the inauguration of Hayes, Grant had determined that the colored voters of the United States could not be protected by United States troops. Our government is a peculiar one. It is founded on the principle that the majority will rule, and that the fact that it is a majority invests it with power to protect itself. In such a government, if the majority can not, or will not, protect itself, it is almost impossible to protect it by any agency outside of itself. If the negroes in the South were in the minority, and their rights were trampled on by the white majority, the case would be different. As it was, the continued presence of federal troops in the South gave a powerful weapon for political warfare to the opponents of the Republican party, while they really subserved no practical end. They could not prevent intimidation, for they could only cover very few districts. The people of the North would have been rightfully considered as evaders had no effort been made to protect the men whom they had freed. They made the effort nobly, and it has failed. General Grant saw this; he realized that a majority which was unable, through ignorance, to protect itself, could not, from the very nature of the government itself, be protected by bayonets, and but for the coming speedy change in the administration, I really believe that he would have taken the responsibility of withdrawing the troops.

The Enterprise says that in the recent interview with Senator Jones no reference was made to the outrageous discriminations against this State by the Union and Central Pacific railroad companies—discriminations which are robbing the people of Nevada of millions of dollars annually. We hope to hear the Senator announce, with the vehemence which characterizes his tireless assault upon the Eastern gold rings, that this robbery of our people must be stopped.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Brotherton brothers have opened an oyster saloon in San Francisco and the press is yelling for Christians to go there and eat. The theory here set forth presumes that a reform of character is projected and a broad belief is also insinuated that the thoughtful Christian ought to stuff himself with diseased oysters during the months of July and August that these shrimp vendors may once more become lamblike. Jack Harrington once reformed and started a soda fountain, but his yearnings for Christ and his income were at once cut short by the temperance persons, who borrowed his glasses and chairs. The Brothertons are no doubt worthy of miraculous aid, but there is something too extravagant in the idea of convicted forgers living upon the bellies of church deacons for the simple reason that these worthies have to make a living off their piety and can't afford to eat shrimps and oysters except in the form of private contributions. The Brothertons will find in this class of patrons a safe deposit company for all the mollusks which their credit will purchase.

Jame G. Fair is not a candidate for anything, and authorizes the Gold Hill News to proclaim the fact. The motive which induced a mention of Mr. Fair's name is a characteristic of Nevada politics. Mr. Fair is said to be a man of some means and certain Democrats knew that if he chose to run they might as well be in favor as among the outs. They tumbled over each other, therefore, in a wild desire to touch the hem of his political garment. Mr. Fair has now witnessed their loyalty to his means, and, becoming weary of the mob, proceeds to kick them out of doors. Each one will take his bruise with a light heart and say "Well, if the old man ever concludes to stand in he will know who his friends are." As that fine Chinook scholar, Deacon P., would say, verbum sap.

Geo. W. Burleigh lately lectured in Capron, Illinois, on "Suicide." At the conclusion of the lecture Mr. Burleigh blew a hole through the place where he should have had brains. The custom inaugurated by Mr. B. should find many zealous imitators. There are several Burly persons who mangle their native language for an admission fee who would invite more interest as the central figure in a funeral procession. Let Mr. Burleigh's name be handed down, and his commendable act accorded the most fulsome practice.

Mrs. John W. Mackay lately proposed to buy the celebrated "Arch of Triumph" from the city of Paris because they would not allow her to light it up with electricity. Mrs. Mackay reminds one of the lady, who, when told that her daughter had no capacity for music, declared that no expense should be spared in procuring one.

The Virginia Footlight is a pretty bright little paper, but when it goes groping about in the mists of antiquity and seizes by its thin gray hair the following joke and palms it off as original it is time for the young men of the land to rise, organize and protest with a pick handle: "It is said that Eve was made for Adams Express Company."

The primaries for Republicans in Eureka has been ordered for September 7th, and the county convention for September 13th. We like to see due notice given of primaries. It looks like a fair deal, and will strengthen the Republican cause if every county in the State allows the people a fair choice of delegates.

Hon. C. C. Goodwin, of the Enterprise, says he will not be a candidate for Judge of the first district. Judge Goodwin, having escaped the poverty and hard work of the legal profession, is naturally reluctant to forsake the opulence and luxury which is found in all well regulated newspaper offices.

Carson is about to change her political hue because Hon. J. P. Jones has not yet visited that metropolis. The fact that he stopped in Reno was enough.

Another Queen is dead, Fatou ma Djomby, sovereign of Moheley, a little island at the entrance of the Mozambique channel.—Ex.

The lady was a niece of Deacon Parkinson. Fiat justitia.

The Carson Fair.

W. R. Chamberlain was up at Carson yesterday on a mission to the heathen of that unhappy land. He pointed out to the inhabitants that all the fast horses of the coast don't revolve around the village that keeps Deacon Parkinson out of harm's way, that if the Carsonites want the stock men of California to bring their racers up to Nevada, Carson will have to be accommodating. The races begin at San Jose on the same day as the Carson fair, and as our fair opens a week after that the horsemen won't be able to get around to Carson. Carson will therefore, if it has any sense, postpone its fair till a few days after ours and then it can have some races. There is no use being pig-headed about it. If Carson wants a fair that is anything like a fair it must be accommodating, and not get into its small head that all the rest of the world must stand from under when it appears.

About Beer.

Some people object to Beer these warm days, but those who don't approve of Beer are generally those who never drank Beer.

That's the way the compositor set it up and when an explanation was demanded he said that the man who wouldn't spell beer with a capital had no notion of the relative importance of things. For his part he was not one of those who had such a respect for wealth as to give capitals to money and champagne, but when it came to beer, why it was BEEK, and he'd throw up his situation rather than go back on a friend. As we go to press he is snoring in a neighboring saloon.

Fleishish Revenge.

A young male person residing in this town has become possessed of a banjo and has for some fancied wrongs taken a deadly hatred to the inhabitants of Reno. He was abroad upon the quiet streets with his infernal machine last night. If Carson were not so mean she might lend us her 601 for an hour or two. But no courtesies may be expected from that village and we shall certainly be put to the trouble of manufacturing one of our own.

Jottings.

—Stage from Quincy arrived last night. Three passengers.
—The citizens' meeting, on Monday night, should be largely attended.
—L. S. Burchard, business manager of the GAZETTE, is in Verdi.
—Mr. Wm. Oatman, of Sacramento, is in Reno visiting Allen C. Bragg.
—There's balm in Gilead and other fine preparations at Wm. Pinnerger's.
—Mrs. R. P. Chapin goes East very soon on a visit to the "Old Folks at home."

—Pasha Stoddard has been visiting the Comstock and returned to Reno's bosom last evening.
—Wm. Coppersmith, of Surprise, valley, is informed that his WEEKLY GAZETTE is mailed regularly.
—Talk about the grasshoppers ravages, how do they compare with the sudden descent of the migratory candidate upon the unwary voter.

—The rocks are rising farther and farther out of the Truckee. The river will be very low before long.

—Fifteen carloads of cattle belonging to Mr. Todhunter, of Stein's mountain, passed for San Francisco yesterday.

—Joe Jones, superintendent of the Jones & Kincaid, is in from Pyramid and reports everything as flourishing in that quarter.

—The Good Templars of Reno, Virginia and Carson will have a grand anti-Budweiser excursion to the Bowers' Mansion on August 24th.

—The ladies who were awarded Vick's premium at our last fair have not received them yet and would like very much to know why.

—Jasper Babcock, candidate for Secretary of State came up from San Francisco on the lighting and went through to Virginia city this morning.

—The man who says the Indian can not be civilized has never seen a Reno Pute trying to induce a Chinaman to wash his once white shirt on tick.

—We understand that Mr. J. P. Grey has purchased forty acres of land near town and will build a handsome residence thereon at an early day.

—The Democratic county central committee will meet again on August 17th to appoint the day for the primaries and set the date for the county convention.

—The occasional Renoite who so far forgets himself as to visit Virginia reports that that town is dull to deadness. There is next to nothing doing in any branch of business.

—The provident citizen pays for no beer at this season. He no longer says to his friend "Let's go and take a drink," but he rather exclaims when thirsty: "Let's go out and hunt a candidate."

—A leading Democratic citizen was seen taking a bath in the Truckee last evening. A large crowd gathered on both banks of the river to observe the curious sight. For political reasons the name is withheld.

—There is a movement on foot among the gayer, more thoughtless members of the Episcopal church to give an entertainment shortly. It is proposed that a dramatic performance shall be one of the features with social fixings as a wind-up.

Check Coppered.

Colonel Garrard, who trundles the Bradley baby carriage, came down to Reno to fix up things with the Democratic county central committee in the interest of his gubernatorial infant, departed yesterday with a Washoe summer bug in his ear. Even if a Washoe happens to be a Democrat he likes to hang on to his rights, and the attempt to take out of the hands of the rank and file of the party the power of choosing the delegates to the State convention proved a miserable failure. The Colonel must have felt considerably cast down, for he has the strongest kind of backing, not only terrestrial but supermundane. It is well known that the corpulent ghost of General Winfield Scott hangs around the Colonel's office and gives him points on Nevada politics, in which, it is notorious, the hero of Lundy's Lane was morbidly interested. Governor Bradley, in the person of Colonel Garrard, may as well remain away from Washoe if the visits are to be devoted to intermeddling. Both gentlemen have many friends here, but the Democrats in this region feel themselves capable of preparing their own political hash.

Mr. Bailey's Prolonged Absence.

W. S. Bailey, of the Meat Shipping Association, several weeks ago left for John Day valley, where on July 1st 4000 head of beef cattle were to be ready for his inspection. Mr. Bailey hasn't been heard from since. It is supposed that the stock men, fearful of the Indians, have not driven their cattle into the valley, and that Mr. Bailey is waiting until they do.

Off for Eastern Nevada.

J. C. Hagerman goes to the eastern part of the State this evening to cast his eagle eye around the political sky in that direction. Mr. Hagerman will doubtless be well treated by the Democrats of the towns he visits. He will make friends wherever he goes, for he is a thorough gentleman and a man of brains, besides.

IGNORANCE

Ladled out to Those in Search of Knowledge.

Jane—Your black bombazine may be turned or cut over. Put a gusset in the back and a box pleat at each end. You were right to chide Adolphus; he had no right to call your mother a liar; such words are too severe; however, the course of true love never runs smooth.

Candidate—No, no; the short bit system will invariably bring you into disgrace. A mortgage on your house will ease matters for a while. Ten dollars a year in advance.

Elizabeth—Mr. Beecher will be here at August 19th. You should not call your husband a brute if you can help it.

Priscilla—Freckles are more promptly removed by the use of a pickaxe. You cannot marry before you are sixteen.

Rancher—We publish the market report every week; $2 50 a year is our price in advance.

Agnes—The Second Adventists believe that the world will soon end. Brunettes should wear pink or some other suitable color. Willie has no right to reproach you because your shoes are number nine.

Alice—It is better not to touch drink at all.

Dennis—Lick her. No woman should use such language toward her husband.

Democrat—It should not trouble you to make a speech. For a substance skeleton use the expressions "out and out," "dyed in the wool," "for the last twenty-five years."

Anxious Inquirer—Your spiritual drunkenness would disappear by sleeping with a receipt for a year's subscription to the GAZETTE.

DISTRICT COURT.

Divorce, Probate and other Legal Business.

The District Court was in session to-day. In the case of the California Fruit Shipping Association vs. B. B. Norton the demurrer to the complaint was confessed by plaintiff, and plaintiff was given five days in which to amend the complaint.

Oliver C. Cole was granted a divorce from William H. L. Cole, on the ground of desertion, the summons having been duly served by publication, and the time for answering the same having expired, the default of the defendant was entered. The proofs of neglect and desertion offered were certainly ample. The lady was left without the barest necessities in childhood over a year ago, and has since maintained herself and child by honest work. The husband is loafing around California somewhere.

In the matter of the estate of Elias E. Leek, who recently died at the Depot hotel, it was ordered on the petition of Henry A. Clawson, that the will of the deceased be admitted to probate and that Mr. Clawson be appointed executor. The estate is valued at about $5,000 and consists chiefly of real estate in San Francisco and bank stock. Mr. Clawson is the sole devisee.

In the matter of the estate of M. V. Gilbert, an order of distribution to Ferdinand Reis, the assignee for the heirs, was made.

Court adjourned for the term.

Square Business.

Gold Hill News: The Reno GAZETTE talketh turkey after the following style: "If any man desires to run for office this fall the eminently just and proper thing for him to do is in the way of a public announcement. If you do not fear the public, let them know it. If you do not care to have your record discussed, maintain your privacy because you do not deserve office." The News is inclined to agree with the views of the GAZETTE in this matter. If you are worthy of your aspirations, that is to say, good for anything, trot yourself out before the public. Set forth your aspirations and expectations in some respectable newspaper like the News or GAZETTE, expending a little old $20 or less by way of helping the printer, and then if you do not get the office you seek, it will not be your fault. Go for it right, and stand in or stand out.

Tiffany's Ten Strike.

Yesterday Wm. Tiffany, accompanied by his attorney, Judge Marshall, and the representatives of the ditch company, accompanied by Judge Gilson, viewed the ground from which Tiffany a few days ago drove the Chinamen who were digging the ditch. Mr. Tiffany's place is two miles above Verdi. It was yesterday proved to his satisfaction that the land through which the ditch is being run does not belong to him and he retired from the field. He was arrested for charging the Chinamen with a shotgun. The case has been dismissed. When the dispute first arose the ditch company offered Tiffany $25 for his permission to run their ditch through what they supposed to be his land. He laughed at the offer. The gentleman is now not only out that much, but about $50 for attorney's fees besides.

That New Paper.

Considerable talk has been indulged in recently in regard to a new paper in Reno. Mr. Parkinson announced that it was a settled fact, but we have not yet learned that it is a probability. Mr. Barney, late of the Independent at Cherry Creek, is mentioned in connection with the enterprise, but we understand that he meets with very little encouragement. We have no desire to discourage the new venture, and should another metropolitan journal be born in Reno we will welcome it. The more the merrier.

MUSIC, TARGET PRACTICE, TENNIS, REFRESHMENTS.—L. Wintermantel has made still further improvements in the appointments of his summer garden and shooting galleries. A fine Ballard rifle is now at the disposal of visitors, and the ten-pin alleys are now in the best of trim. Targets at long or short range, and polite attendants to wait upon visitors. A shady resort for the weary and heavy laden, also for the thirsty who desire quenching. Pay him a visit, and the best of wines liquors and cigars will be served to you at all times. 5-6 tf

SELLING OUT, JELLING OUT.—Well Brothers, of the Branch Suit and Clock House on east side Virginia street, would inform the ladies and their patrons generally that they will close out their large stock of Ladies Embroidery and underwear, etc., by August 1st. The remainder of their stock will be sacrificed in order to close it out by the date mentioned. The ladies should call and secure bargains as early as possible. WELLS BROTHERS.

FELLOWS'
Compound Syrup!

—OF—

HYPOPHOSPHITES.

THIS DISCOVERY

Is the result of a series of Scientific Experiments based upon the theory that "for the successful cure of Wasting Diseases, the nervous system must be made vigorous and healthy."

One of the first symptoms of disease affecting either the Liver, Lungs, Heart, Stomach, or Genital Organs, is a loss of nervous power.
This is followed by muscular relaxation, weakness, and emaciation of all the organs which depend upon them for health or involuntary muscular action, the weaker suffering first.

The inventor, acting upon this idea, that the muscles and nerves depend upon each other for efficient strength and action, and that they must be treated directly in order to speedily and permanently cure diseases of the organs which they control, became convinced, after months of experiment, that no other preparation produced such potent and direct effects upon the nervous system as his

Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites
and except in cases of actual organic loss, that it will restore patients suffering from those maladies.

Amongst the diseases overcome by the use of this remedy are the following:—

Chronic Constipation,
Chronic Dyspepsia,
Asthma,
Chronic Bronchitis,
Consumption,
Chronic Diarrhoea,
Chronic Laryngitis,
Melancholy,
Nervous Debility.

Debility, resulting from Typhoid and other fevers, Diphtheritic Prostration, Hysteria, Hypochondria, Nervous Excitability, Marasmus or Wasting of the Muscles, Aphonia or Loss of Voice, Sluggishness of the Liver, Interrupted and Feeble Action of the Heart, SUPPORTING FEELINGS caused by mucous affection of the Lungs and Air Passages leading to hereditary and now existing between you and now existing between you and your wife; Indigestion and habitual Constipation almost always arise from weakness of the muscles and nerves of the stomach and bowels.
In such cases, Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites has proved itself of the greatest benefit, and has been used by the medical faculty in every section where action of the bowels, and the evacuations soon become copious and healthy, without producing the effect of purgative medicine.
Weakness of the Joints and Muscles, IMpurity of the Blood, and INWARD WASTING may be cured by attention to the regular description above, and by due regard to the habits of life.

FELLOWS'
Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites

The power of arresting diseases displayed by this preparation is honorably acknowledged by the medical faculty in every section where it has been introduced, and the large sale is the best guarantee of the estimation in which it is held by the public.

This syrup will cure PULMONARY CONSUMPTION in the first and second stages, will give great relief and prolong life in the third. It will cure Asthma, Bronchitis, Laryngitis and Coughs. It will cure all diseases originating from want of MUSCULAR ACTION and NERVOUS FORCE.

Sold by all Druggists.

Price $1.50 per bottle or six bottles for $7.50.
